

DATA PROTECTION PRIVACY NOTICE

- If you have any questions about this privacy notice (“Notice”), please contact me by email.
- I will process your and third parties’ personal data, as further explained below, in the course of providing you with notarial and associated services including access to our website and online features (“Services”).
- We will let you know, by posting on my website or otherwise, if I make any changes to this Notice from time to time. Your continued use of the Services after notifying such changes will amount to your acknowledgement of the amended Notice.
- PLEASE NOTE: You shall and you hereby agree to indemnify me and any agents and subcontractors that I may use in the course of providing the Services (each an “Indemnified Party”) from and against any claims, losses, demands, actions, liabilities, fines, penalties, reasonable expenses, damages and settlement amounts (including reasonable legal fees and costs) incurred by any Indemnified Party arising out of or in connection with any breach by you of the warranties included in this page.

What is Personal Data?

- “Personal data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, known as ‘data subject’, who can be identified directly or indirectly; it may include name, address, email address, phone number, IP address, location data, cookies and similar information. It may also include “special categories of personal data” such as racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a data subject, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.
- I may process personal data and special categories of personal data which you provide in connection with the Services about yourself and other data subjects, e.g. individuals whose details are included in any materials provided by you to me. I may obtain information about you and other data subjects from third party service providers, such as due diligence platforms.
- The provision of certain personal data is mandatory in order for me to comply with mandatory client due diligence requirements and consequently to provide the Services. You warrant on a continuous basis that such personal data is accurate, complete and up to date. Failure to comply may result in documents being rejected by the relevant certification authorities, held invalid in the destination country or other difficulty to successfully completing the Services.

- In relation to personal data of data subjects you warrant to me on a continuous basis that:
 - where applicable, you are authorised to share such personal data with me in connection with the Services and that wherever another data subject is referred to, you have obtained the explicit and demonstrable consent from all relevant data subjects to the inclusion and use of any personal data concerning them;
 - to the extent this is required in connection with the Services, such personal data is accurate, complete and up to date; and
 - either you provide your explicit consent and warrant that each data subject has provided explicit consent for the transfer of personal data to foreign organisations in connection with the Services as set out at on this page, or that an alternative legal gateway for such transfer (such as transfer necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the data subject) has been satisfied.

How do I use your personal data?

I will only process personal data, in accordance with applicable law, for the following purposes:

- responding to your queries, requests and other communications;
- providing the Services, including, where applicable, procuring acts from foreign organisations;
- enabling suppliers and service providers to carry out certain functions on my behalf in order to provide the Services, including webhosting, data storage, identity verification, technical, logistical, courier or other functions, as applicable;
- allowing you to use features on my website, when you choose to do so;
- ensuring the security of my business and preventing or detecting fraud;
- administering my business, including complaints resolution, troubleshooting of our website, data analysis, testing of new features, research, statistical and survey purposes;
- developing and improving my Services;
- complying with applicable law, including Notary Practice Rules, guidelines and regulations or in response to a lawful request from a court or regulatory body.
- The legal basis for me to process personal data for the purposes described above will typically include:

- processing necessary to fulfil a contract that I have in place with you or other data subjects, such as processing for the purposes set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (b) and (d);
- your consent, such as processing for the purposes set out
- processing necessary for our or a third party's legitimate interests, such as processing for the purposes set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (b), (e), (f) and (g), which is carried out on the basis of the legitimate interests of the business to ensure that Services are properly provided, the security of the business and its clients and the proper administration of the business; and
- processing necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, such as processing for the purposes set out in paragraph (h).and
- any other applicable legal grounds for processing from time to time.

Disclosure of personal data

- There are circumstances where I may wish to disclose or is compelled to disclose your personal data to third parties. These scenarios include disclosure to:
- My suppliers and service providers to facilitate the provision of the Services, including couriers, translators, IT consultants and legalisation and other handling agents, webhosting providers, identity verification partners (in order to verify your identity against public databases), consultants, for example, in order to protect the security or integrity of our business, including our databases and systems and for business continuity reasons;
- public authorities to carry out acts which are necessary in connection with the Services, such as the Foreign Office;
- foreign organisations to carry out acts which are necessary in connection with the Services, such as Embassies, Consulates and High Commissions;
- professional organisations exercising certain public functions in relation to the notaries profession, such as Chambers of Commerce;
- public authorities where I am required by law to do so; and
- any other third party where you have provided your consent.

International transfer of your personal data

- I may transfer your personal data to a third party in countries outside the country in which it was originally collected for further processing in accordance with the purposes set out above. In particular, your personal data may be transferred to foreign organisations such as foreign Embassies located in the UK or abroad. Such organisations will process personal data in accordance with the laws to which they are subject and international treaties over which I have no control.

- If I transfer personal data to private organisations abroad, such as subcontractors, it will, as required by applicable law, ensure that your privacy rights are adequately protected by appropriate technical, organisation, contractual or other lawful means. You may contact me for a copy of such safeguards in these circumstances.

Retention of personal data

- Your personal data will be retained for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes listed above or as required by the law. For example, the Notaries Practice Rules require that notarial acts in the public form shall be preserved permanently. Records of acts not in public form shall be preserved for a minimum period of 12 years. Please contact us for further details of applicable retention periods. Personal data may for reasons of security and convenience be stored on remote data facilities but in an encrypted form.
- I may keep an anonymised form of your personal data, which will no longer refer to you, for statistical purposes without time limits, to the extent that I have a legitimate and lawful interest in doing so.

Security of personal data

- I will implement technical and organisational security measures in order to prevent unauthorised access to your personal data.
- However, please be aware that the transmission of information via the internet is never completely secure. Whilst I can do my best to keep our own systems secure, we do not have full control over all processes involved in, for example, your use of my website or sending confidential materials to me via email, and I cannot therefore guarantee the security of your information transmitted to me on the web.

Data subject rights

- Data subjects have numerous rights in relation to their personal data. For further information about your data protection rights please visit the ICO website.
- Right to make a subject access request (SAR). Data subjects may request in writing copies of their personal data. However, compliance with such requests is subject to certain limitations and exemptions and the rights of other data subjects. Each request should make clear that a SAR is being made. You may also be required to submit a proof of your identity and payment, where applicable.
- Right to rectification. Data subjects may request that we rectify any inaccurate or incomplete personal data.

- Right to withdraw consent. Data subjects may at any time withdraw their consent to the processing of their personal data carried out by me on the basis of previous consent. Such withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on previous consent.
- Right to object to processing, including automated processing and profiling. I do not make automated decisions.
- Right to erasure. Data subjects may request that I erase their personal data. I will comply, unless there is a lawful reason for not doing so. For example, there may be an overriding legitimate ground for keeping the personal data, such as, Notaries archiving obligations that I have to comply with.
- Restriction. Data subjects may request that I restrict my processing of their personal data in various circumstances. I will comply, unless there is a lawful reason for not doing so, such as, a legal obligation to continue processing your personal data in a certain way.
- Right to data portability. In certain circumstances, data subjects may request the controller to provide a copy of their personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have it transferred to another provider of the same or similar services. To the extent such right applies to the Services, I will comply with such transfer request. Please note that a transfer to another provider does not imply erasure of the data subject's personal data which may still be required for legitimate and lawful purposes.
- Right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority. I suggest that data subjects contact me about any questions or complaints in relation to how I process personal data. However, each data subject has the right to contact the relevant supervisory authority directly.
